INA Announces 2007 All-State Selections for Girls Basketball

DES MOINES, IA -Heading the Iowa Newspaper Association All State selections is the 2007 Iowa Miss Basketball, Kelsey Bolte of Battle Creek-Ida Grove. The 6-1 Bolte, who has signed with Iowa State of the Big 12 Conference, has been a force in Iowa girls basketball for four seasons, leading her team to three Class 2A state tourney appearances, including runner-up finishes to North Butler in each of the last two years. She finished her career as the ninth-leading career scorer in five-player history with 2,089. This year she became just the 11th Iowa prep to collect at least 2,000 points in the five--player game. During her career BC-IG won 92 games. She also grabbed 1,016 career rebounds, handed out 448 assists, made 516 steals and blocked 327 shots. As a freshman she was the leading scorer and rebounder on a state tourney squad, but not a starter. Kelsey has been named to the 2A all-tournament team in each of the last two seasons.
