

Facebook and Twitter posts promoting Community Conversations

Make a difference in your community! A “Community Conversation” being held {date, time, location} will provide the tools you need to become an engaged, informed citizen and allow you to do your part to help build a strong community. Find out more at {website}.

What government meetings are open to the public? Attend “Power to the People: Making a Difference in Your Community” and find out this and more about participating in your local city, county or school government. Find out more at {website}.

90 minutes is all it takes to learn how to make a difference in your community! A “Community Conversation” being held {date, time, location} will provide the tools you need to become an engaged, informed citizen and allow you to do your part to help build a strong community. Find out more at {website}.

Are you concerned that budget cuts may be affecting the quality of your child’s education? Can you attend school board meetings to find out more about your school board’s plans? A free 90-minute public meeting will provide the answers to these and more questions about participating in your school and other local governments. Find out more at {website}.

Building a strong community, including an open and accountable system of government, is your responsibility. Find out how to become a more informed and engaged citizen. Find out more at {website}.

What do police reports, school board minutes, real estate records and election results have in common? They are all public records and you have the right to access them. How do you go about it? A free 90-minute public meeting will provide the answers to these and more questions about participating in your local government. Find out more at {website}.

Are you allowed to attend government meetings? What can government bodies discuss in “closed session”? Attend “Power to the People: Making a Difference in Your Community” and find out this and more about participating in your local city, county or school government. Find out more at {website}.

Do you want to become a more engaged and informed citizen? Attend a free 90-minute public meeting and receive a “tool kit” full of resources on open meetings and open records, government lingo, contact information for leaders in your community and more! Find out more at {website}.

Don't miss your chance to find out how to make a difference in your community! Tonight's "Community Conversation" will provide the tools you need to become and engaged, informed citizen and allow you to do your part to help build a strong community. Find out more at {website}..

Are you allowed to attend your city council meeting? Where do you find the agenda for the upcoming meeting? A free 90-minute public meeting will provide the answers to these and more questions about participating in your local government. Find out more at {website}.