Don't Shoot Skinny Rabbits!

Laugh until you cry with this year's kick-off speaker

Make plans now to attend the Friday morning kick-off session during the 2020 INA Convention and Trade Show presented by Deadra Stanton, owner of Creative Communications, on Feb. 7 at 9 a.m.

Join Deadra as she shares that before we can grow professionally, we need to learn to survive personally. As the pace of change quickens every day, we sometimes end up chasing too many skinny rabbits. When we do this we lose our energy and our focus on what's really important. Be open to new ideas, a revitalized sense of self, and letting go of the stress that causes you to chase SKINNY RABBITS!

Deadra Stanton

Deadra Stanton will make you laugh until you cry. Her message of humor and inspiration has been enjoyed by thousands of people across the United States. As she shares her stories of "life lessons", she will inspire you to enjoy life, laugh at life's situations and most of all... "Don't Shoot Skinny Rabbits!"

Deadra Stanton, owner and presenter for her company Creative Communications, has been a teacher of English, Speech, and Theatre for over 31 years. She is an honor graduate of Mankato State University in Mankato, Minnesota and recently earned her Masters in Education from St. Mary's University. With majors in Speech Communications, Theatre Arts, and Business Administration, she brings a diverse background to the podium.

? question of the week

Can a newspaper get a refund from the Postal Service for fees paid for duplicate address corrections if it submitted a change-of address-order?

Yes. According to the Domestic Mail Manual, newspaper personnel may request a refund of the fees paid for duplicate address correction notices on Forms 3579 provided by USPS if the customer submitted a change-of-address order and the first and duplicate notices are provided on magnetic tape by address correction service (ACS) or on printed copy by a Computerized Forwarding System (CFS) unit. The refund request must be supported by documentation showing the number of duplicate notices received. The USPS will not process refunds for duplicate notices if both the original and duplicate notices are not provided by ACS or CFS. So, the newspaper personnel should return all of the forms received on the same address and it can expect to have the refund deposited into its account for all but one of the duplicates for the same address.

▼ HELP WANTED

ASSISTANT SPORTS EDITOR. The Clinton Herald, an award-winning newspaper that publishes five days a week, Tuesday through Saturday, is accepting applications for an assistant sports editor position.

This position develops sports content for both print and online publishing. The successful candidate will cover local games, write sports feature stories as assigned and take photos and videos to be completed on deadline for a daily news product. The qualified candidate must be a proficient writer, editor, typist, possess excellent people skills and be a self-starter who is able to develop enterprise work and will assist in management of digital sports content. The Clinton Herald is located in Clinton, Iowa on the banks of the Mississippi River. Our coverage area spans high schools in both Iowa and northwestern Illinois, and includes the Clinton LumberKings. 1218

PART-TIME ADVERTISING SALES REPRESENTATIVE. The Northwood Anchor and Manly Junction Signal, newspapers in Worth County, are seeking a part time advertising sales representative, with potential for other opportunities. We offer a job with a flexible schedule, working with a small team to support several local communities, their businesses and their newspapers. Questions or resumes may be emailed to kris@nwdanchor.com.

SENIOR STAFF WRITER. The Des Moines Business Record is seeking a full-time journalist to cover economic development in Greater Des Moines. The right candidate will join our experienced staff to lead the Business Record's coverage of the people, issues and trends affecting the business community as the region continues to grow and transform. The position requires a strong writer who can develop a beat and write in-depth analysis pieces on a variety of business topics for our weekly print edition, website, newsletters and specialty magazines. This person must function with a great deal of autonomy, building sources on his/her beats and managing his/her story schedules. Apply at www.businessrecord.com/hiring. 0129

SPORTS EDITOR. The News is looking for a sports editor who can do it all – cover sports, shoot photos, work with correspondents and lay out pages. Quality sports coverage is one of the main reasons readers turn to the The News. You will be covering four high schools with competitive teams that usually make it to state tournaments. We emphasize quality writing, photography and page design in our sports section that usually has four or more pages each week.

The News is a 2,100-circulation weekly newspaper, just 20 minutes from Iowa City, home of the University of Iowa. We have a small staff that works hard but has fun.

If you have a passion for covering community sports, we want to talk with you. Please send a resume and five samples of your work to Publisher@TheNews-IA.com by Jan. 3. We are looking for someone with at least a year of experience, but we will consider recent graduates with high potential. 0115

Former editor/reporter (now retired) seeks part-time work involving reporting, editing, or proofreading (or combination thereof) for your fine publication. I have extensive experience covering city council, school boards, sports of all types, county board, and/or any type of hard news. I can also write features on any subject. I would work from home via my cell phone, internet and computer and I've had many years of experience doing my job this way. I would be an independent contractor and I would be very flexible. I would be able to work nights and weekends since some contacts wouldn't be available during day-time hours. Advertising sales: I also have extensive experience in advertising sales for newspapers, shoppers, TMC products, and websites. I actually enjoy a combination of writing and sales. Full-time possible: My wife also has experience in sales and writing. If you wanted the equivalent of full-time (remote) we could become a full-time team for you. The Best Movie of all time was His Girl Friday, a great comedy about the newspaper business. And the best business of all time (in my prejudiced view) is the newspaper business. Please call Glenn Schreiber, 515-570-5709 (cell) or e-mail me at schreiberglenn@gmail.com.

View and submit ads on the Internet at www.INAnews.com. Students and professionals may also submit their resumé's for online viewing.

There is no charge for most of these ads. They are a free service to INA active (newspaper) members only. The name of the newspaper in the ad must be the same as published in the current INA Directory.

If you are trying to help an employee relocate, please send us the ad information on your letterhead, rather than having the employee write us. We will not run ads for persons living in a member's town without first clearing the ad with the publisher.

Please have copy to the INA office no later than noon on Monday. The INA will make the determination of whether an ad qualifies for free or paid publication. If payment for an ad is not enclosed with the ad, the INA will require payment in advance before the ad will be published.

Ads for products or services which could be marketed for a profit may be published for a fee of $10 per insertion, paid in advance, with a 40-word maximum.

Recruitment (help wanted) ads for positions in states other than Iowa may be published for a fee of $25 per insertion, with a 100-word maximum.

For more information, contact Cicely Gordon at cgordon@inanews.com.

CLASSIFIEDS 2020

Thursday, January 16 · 1-2 p.m.

Registration fee: FREE · Deadline: January 13

IN THIS WEBINAR...

The best new ideas to bring your Classifieds back to life! Why is it some papers are thriving with pages of Auto display, while others aren't? Why do some papers have giant real estate sections or monthly tabs? Why are some papers booming in employment display? Why do some papers have pages of Service Directory ads while others have just a handful? Why is your classified revenue still going down while other papers are thriving? If you want YOUR classifieds to survive 2020, then this webinar will set you in the right direction.

THE PRESENTER...

IOWA NEWSPAPER ASSOCIATION
CONVENTION & TRADE SHOW

DES MOINES MARRIOTT DOWNTOWN | FEBRUARY 5-7, 2020

PROGRAM

Make sure your newspaper is ready to face industry challenges by taking advantage of this terrific programming line-up!

DRIVE EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT

Linda Ramey-Greive, LRG Consulting

The session will use True Colors® personality profiling to understand people’s communication and temperament with specific focus on understanding the personality profiles to create more customized communication. Improving communication within organizations increases employee engagement.

TOOLKIT FOR COLLABORATION

Sumi Aggarwal, Reveal (Center for Investigative Reporting)

In this session, we’ll talk about collaborations and highlight the Local Labs to date (in New Orleans, San Jose and New Jersey) and the in-depth reporting that has resulted. We’ll also discuss lessons learned and tactical tools to launch investigative collaborations in their own communities.

COACH TO ENGAGE MILLENNIALS

Linda Ramey-Greive, LRG Consulting

The session will explain who Millennials and Generation Z are and how communication and coaching drive their engagement and impact in the workplace. We will use the personality profile insights gained in the first session to customize how to deliver feedback.

SPEED ROUND ROBIN

Industry Professionals

Topics include: EDMS, FOIA, legislative update, open meetings and malware security.

KICK-OFF SPEAKER DON’T SHOOT SKINNY RABBITS!

Deadra Stanton, Creative Communications

Before we can grow professionally, we need to learn to survive personally. As the pace of change quickens every day, we sometimes end up chasing too many skinny rabbits. When we do this we lose our energy and our focus on what’s really important.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS COVERAGE TIMELY & RELEVANT

Jim Pumarlo, Newsroom Strategies

Coverage of local governing bodies remains a primary responsibility of community newspapers. But newsrooms must change their approach if they are to engage readers — put more focus on previewing the meetings and report on government actions in terms of the practical impact on readers.

DON'T BE AN AVERAGE JOE/JOSEPHINE

Kelly Wirges, ProMax Training & Consulting

This session compares the difference between an average and top performer; explaining their day-to-day actions, clients and prospect interactions, as well as their strategies and execution of plans. Most importantly, this session underscores the outcomes produced by top performers and how to easily incorporate their successful techniques.

16 DIGITAL TRENDS IN 60 MINUTES

Tyson Bird, Texas Highways Magazine

Bring your notebook and a few pens because this rapid-fire session will cover a lot of topics in a short time. We’ll go over what’s working — and what’s not — in digital news so you can be prepared to act, pass and think about all that’s happening in the digital world.

KEYNOTE PRESENTATION NEWSPAPERS IN REALITY AND FICTION – ONE WRITER’S JOURNEY

Joseph LeValley, Author

Prior to becoming an author, Joe was fortunate to find success in three different careers: journalism, health care, and music. Joe was a reporter-photographer for Iowa newspapers for seven years. During that time, he wrote thousands of articles ranging from breaking news to feature stories to personal columns.

FINDING TIME FOR EDITORIAL PROJECTS

Jim Pumarlo, Newsroom Strategies

Most newsrooms find it a full-time job just to keep up with day-to-day and week-to-week activities. That should not deter you from pursuing special projects. This session will expand the definition of special reports and identify ways to pursue these projects within your regular reporting.

ADDRESSING OBJECTIONS IS AS EASY AS 1-2-3

Kelly Wirges, ProMax Training & Consulting

Getting objections during the sales process is expected; however, it can be one of the most frustrating aspects of selling. This session introduces an easy, three-step process to lower resistance and gain agreement that can be put to work immediately.

INSTAGRAM TIPS FOR STORYTELLING

Tyson Bird, Texas Highways Magazine

This hands-on session will go beyond posting photos on Instagram to help you develop strategies for engaging your audience and telling stories on the visual platform. Be prepared for lots of examples of Instagram content from newspapers of many size. Please bring a cell phone with an Instagram account.

CREATING CAMPAIGNS THAT SELL

Kelly Wirges, ProMax Training & Consulting

Creating advertising messages that cut through the clutter is a daunting task. This session shares the methods of developing campaigns that capture attention and create consumer action. Topics include effective messaging to demographic groups, common advertising errors and tips to developing messages that deliver results.

PHOTOGRAPHY: ADDING VALUE TO YOUR PAPER

Brendan Hoffman, International Photographer

With more than a decade of experience photographing for major international publications around the world, Brendan Hoffman recently returned to the United States to spend several months working at the Daily Freeman-Journal in Webster City, Iowa. Applying the principles of social practice art, Hoffman used his role at the paper to promote visual literacy and storytelling, dialogue about journalistic practice and representation, and advocate for the importance of local media.
