Accepting 2022 contest entries!

The Iowa Newspaper Association is excited to begin accepting entries for the 2022 Better Newspaper Contests. These contests, held annually, were developed to foster competition and quality among Iowa's newspapers. To encourage participation, INA will again offer "coupons" for three free entries to newspapers who did not enter the 2021 contests. In addition, INA will offer incentives to newspapers who prepare their entries without error. See the contest timeline below for more information.

The deadline for entries is Friday, October 15, 2021. Entries must be submitted by Oct. 15 at 4:30 p.m. No exceptions or extensions will be made to the deadline. If your newspaper hasn't begun selecting the items you want to submit, now is the time to start.

Entries will, again, be submitted electronically using the online entry submission tool at BetterNewspaperContest.com. For the four categories that require complete sections or issues as entries, INA members may mail paper tearsheets of their entries. Entry information for hard copy entries must still be submitted to the online contest tool and entry tags created from the online site. All entries in the Total Newspaper Design category must be submitted in hard copy format.

Content published on digital platforms is eligible for entry in select categories. Eligible categories are indicated by a computer symbol throughout the Call for Entries. To enter digital content, provide a web link

(URL) to the article/photo/ad, or a screenshot (in jpg format) of the material from when it was published. For categories such as Coverage of Education, Coverage of Business, etc., your entry can consist of a combination of print and digitally-published content. We ask they you chose five examples per category this year.

The Call for Entries and Entry Guide found at INAnews.com contains detailed, step-by-step instructions on using the online system, BetterNewspaperContest.com.

Members of the Oklahoma Press Association will serve as judges of this year's contest entries.

New categories for 2022:

- Best Special Digital Project
- Ken Fusion Best Writing Award
- The weekly division class breakdown changes annually based on the current year's contest participation. For the 2022 contests, classes will be:

ENTRY CLASSES

DAILY division	WEEKLY division
CLASS I - Under 5,050	CLASS I - 840 and under
CLASS II - 5,051 and greater	CLASS II - 841-1,550
	CLASS III - 1,551 and above

If you have questions during the contest entry preparation process, please contact the INA at 515-244-2145 or ina@inanews.com.

CONTEST CORNER

*You

convention
on us!*

Follow entry instructions, win Convention-on-us!

Each year, starting on the Monday following the contest entry deadline, INA staff members begin the process of checking all entries to confirm they are prepared correctly. Newspapers are contacted to resolve any questions prior to the entries being judged, to ensure that all entries are judged fairly and properly.

INA newspapers submitted roughly 3,300 entries in the 2021 contests. As you can expect, checking all of those entries and making follow-up contacts is a lengthy, exhaustive process.

The most common submission errors are multiple entries being combined into one entry upload, missing payments, full tearsheets not being submitted and entries that were missing parts of the required examples.

In an effort to minimize errors and the time INA staff and newspapers spend making corrections, we are continuing an incentive that will offer newspapers who prepare their entries perfectly a chance to win a free 2022 convention package. Each newspaper that does not have to be contacted to fix any of its 2022 contest entries will be entered into a drawing to win a package consisting of one convention registration, one meal package and two nights of hotel stay (approximate value $350).

When preparing your entries, please carefully read over the Call for Entries for each category's rules and requirements. If you have questions, INA staff is ready to help! Contact us at ina@inanews.com or 515-244-2145.

REMINDER: Statement of ownership filing for October deadline

October 1 is the filing deadline for your periodical class Statement of Ownership, Form 3526, with the post office.

Publications issued more frequently than weekly should publish the Statement of Ownership no later than October 10. This applies to dailies, semi- and tri-weeklies.

Publications issued weekly or less frequently but more often than monthly should publish the Statement by October 31. This applies to weeklies.

All other publications should publish the Statement in the first issue after October 1. This applies to infrequent publications such as quarterlies, bi-monthlies, etc. All periodical-class authorized publications must publish such a statement. A reproduction of the Form 3526 submitted to the Postal Service may be used for publication.

Please email your postal statements to Susan James at ina@inanews.com

Why we participate in contest...

The Better Newspaper Awards for us are not just about the plaques and certificates we receive. They're a reflection of our hard work from the year before and encouragement to continue to be a reliable, relatable community newspaper.

These awards not only provide validation to our staff but show our readers that we are providing them with a professional and high quality product they can turn to when they have questions regarding hot topics or want to read a unique feature that can only be found in our paper.

Every year at Mid-America Publishing, our company-wide response to the call for awards shows that we are proud of the work we do and want to showcase our talents to the state and an audience of our peers. We are able to show our fellow journalists and media professionals what new and innovative projects can be done within our small communities and emphasize that community newspapers are still very much a needed commodity across the state.

Most of our newspapers are in small pockets of the state, so the opportunity to show that we can produce publications that focus on the locals that make those communities unique is a significant point of pride for all employees in our company.

- Greg Forbes, Hampton Chronicle/Mid-America Publishing

Q&A from the Iowa Public Information Board

Question: How do I request copies of public records?

Answer: Iowa Code chapter 22 governs the request and release of public records. An individual may request a copy of a public record in person, by telephone, in writing, or electronically (fax, email, text).

Sometimes people think requesting answers to questions is the same as requesting a public record. It is important to specify that your request is for a record. Questions are about the “who, what, when, where, why, and how” of government operations. A public record request asks for copies of specific records, documents, tapes, or other information, stored or preserved, belonging to the government body.

Instead of submitting a question (“Did the city spend money for park maintenance?”), a record request would ask for “copies of all records concerning park maintenance costs.”

The Iowa Public Information Board has a sample letter on its website that can assist you in drafting a record request. While Iowa law does not require that you use a form or submit a record request in writing, submitting a request in writing often leads to less confusion in determining what records are being sought.

DID YOU KNOW that the Iowa Public Information Board staff is available to assist you with questions or problems involving open meetings and public records in Iowa? During the month of August 2021, 75 contacts were made with the Iowa Public Information Board office.

WHO CAN CONTACT THE IPIB AND HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE? Any person can contact the IPIB for assistance by telephone (515-725-1781), by email, or on the IPIB website. So far in 2021, 494 identifiable people have contacted the IPIB. Of these, 261 were private citizens, 178 were government officials or employees, and 55 were members of the media. In 2021, 70% of the incoming contacts were resolved the first day, 13% were resolved in one to five days, and 17% were resolved in six or more days. Opinions, rulings, FAQs, reports, and training documents are available on the IPIB website – www.ipib.iowa.gov.

Iowa Freedom of Information Council offers free courtroom training

The Iowa Freedom of Information Council and Iowa Judicial Branch will conduct a 75-minute training program on September 23 for journalists in southwest Iowa who want to use cameras, laptop computers, audio recorders or smartphones inside Iowa courtrooms.

There is no charge for this program. No reservations are necessary. The training will be repeated in the coming weeks in west central, northwest, southeast and far eastern Iowa.

The September 23 event will be in Atlantic from 10 a.m. until 11:15 a.m. at the Atlantic Public Library. You can find details on the attached flyer.

It is important that journalists -- photographers, videographers, reporters, assignment editors, etc. -- in southwestern Iowa make time for this training if you or your staff want to use electronic gear inside Iowa courtrooms. This training is being held to avoid problems in courtrooms like those that occurred during the recent trial of the man accused of killing Mollie Tibbetts.

Because electronic gear is permitted in courtrooms only with the permission of the presiding judge, it is important that everyone have a thorough understanding of the do's, don'ts and procedures for Iowa's Expanded News Media Coverage rules established by the Iowa Supreme Court.

Avoiding problems is important, because judges have the authority to punish those who violate the court rules. That punishment could range from a verbal reprimand, to banning the journalist or his/her employer from using digital gear in future court proceedings, to criminal contempt-of-court charges against the journalist.

AFL-CIO backs important measure to Save Local News

BY JON SCHLEUSS
THE NEWSGUILD

This week the AFL-CIO endorsed the Local Journalism Sustainability Act, a bill that would provide tax credits to help subscribers, local businesses and, most importantly, local journalists.

The largest federation of unions in the United States wrote to Leader Chuck Schumer, Speaker Nancy Pelosi and Ways and Means Committee Chairman Richard Neal on Friday, commending Senator Maria Cantwell and Representative Ann Kirkpatrick for introducing the legislation.

The bill is a “lifeline for these essential community institutions as they struggle to provide the information their readers rely on during the current national emergency, and to set local news outlets up for a successful recovery,” Government Affairs Director William Samuel wrote.

The federation urged Congressional leaders to “advance the Local Journalism Sustainability Act in any possible upcoming legislative vehicle.”

The Local Journalism Sustainability Act would provide a much-needed boost to save local news jobs. The erosion of local news puts our democracy at threat of extinction. The NewsGuild enthusiastically supports this plan to save local news.

The bill has bipartisan support. More than 50 members of Congress have sponsored the legislation. (H.R.3940 / S.2434)

JOURNALIST COMPENSATION CREDIT

The bill provides for a Journalist Compensation Credit that would give local newspapers, local digital-only news publications and commercial and public broadcasters the ability to hire more dedicated journalists to improve their coverage by granting a five-year credit of up to $25,000 in first year and up to $15,000 in subsequent four years.

The credit could be used to cover 50% of compensation up to $50,000 in first year, and 30% of compensation up to $50,000 in subsequent four years.

Journalists must work a minimum of 100 hours per quarter to qualify as eligible employees.

LOCAL NEWSPAPER SUBSCRIPTION CREDIT

A subscription credit would incentivize people to subscribe to local newspapers.

A five-year credit of up to $250 annually could be used to cover 80% of subscription costs in the first year and 50% in the subsequent four years. To receive the full $250 credit, a subscriber would have to spend at least $312.50 in the first year, and $500 each of the following four years.

The credit could be applied to non-profit publications if the publication is the non-profit's primary activity.

LOCAL NEWSPAPER AND LOCAL MEDIA ADVERTISING CREDIT

Small businesses would be eligible for tax credits for advertising in local newspapers and media.

A five-year credit of up to $5,000 could be granted in the first year and up to $2,500 in the subsequent four years.

The credit would cover 80% of advertising costs in the first year and 50% in subsequent four years. To receive the full $5,000 in the first year and $2,500 in subsequent four years, businesses would have to spend at least $6,250 and $5,000 respectively.

Small businesses may utilize this credit to advertise with local television and radio stations, as well as to local newspapers.

Court denies petition on postal rates

The Postal Service will raise postage rates on Sunday, Aug. 29, after the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit denied a petition by National Newspaper Association, News Media Alliance and others to put a hold on it.

The Court simply issued a statement that the petition was denied, without providing any reasoning for the decision. NNA and others had argued that the Postal Regulatory Commission's decision to authorize the increase by USPS was flawed and that the rate increase should be delayed until the Court decides whether the PRC was correct.

NNA argued that the increase would create immediate and irreparable harm to users of the mail.

"This was always the longest of long shots to try to delay the increase," NNA Chair Brett Wesner, president of Wesner Publications, Cordell, Oklahoma, said. "We felt the impact of a double-digit increase between last January's rate hike and the second one of the year coming this month was overwhelmingly damaging to community newspapers. So we decided to join in this appeal.

"But the court rarely issues such stays. This decision does deliver a blow to newspapers that are struggling to stay afloat. It does not diminish the basis of our original lawsuit. The oral argument on that case will proceed on Sept. 13. We expect a decision by the court by the end of the year. That decision could send the whole matter back to the PRC for reconsideration, and the PRC has the authority to roll back this increase if it so chooses. Congress also has the authority to take action here. I think our members have led the industry in reaching out to Congress about the financial distress of USPS and the need for postal reform."

WHO'S INVITED: Broadcast and print journalists who want to use cameras, laptop computers, audio recorders or smart phones in Iowa courtrooms

This free program will explain the Iowa Supreme Court's Expanded News Media Coverage program, the court rules that govern journalists' use of ENMC devices, the process for obtaining permission to use this gear, and the penalty for violating judges' ENMC orders. Reservations are NOT necessary. This program will be offered in other cities in the coming weeks, too.

The presenters will be:

- o Randy Evans, executive director of the Iowa FOI Council, who is the Iowa Supreme Court's central logistics coordinator for ENMC, and
- o Steve Davis, communications director for the Iowa Judicial Branch

There will be plenty of time to get answers to your questions about the do's and don'ts for the Expanded News Media program.

This training is mandatory for all journalists who want to use cameras, laptops, smart phones or audio recorders inside Iowa courtrooms.
Attendees will receive a new Iowa FOI Council courtroom photo ID badge that will signify to court officials you have completed this training.

2022 IOWA BETTER NEWSPAPER CONTESTS

SPONSORED BY THE IOWA NEWSPAPER FOUNDATION

CALL FOR ENTRIES

DEADLINE - OCTOBER 15, 2021

All contest entry materials must be:

Uploaded to the contest entry website by October 15, 2021 at 4:30 p.m. OR

Postmarked (for hard-copy entries) by October 15, 2021 OR

Hand delivered to the INF (for hard-copy entries) by October 15, 2021 at 4:30 p.m.

All material must have been generated for publication between October 1, 2020 and September 30, 2021 for Editorial, Photography, Digital and Writing contests.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

It is the intent of the INA's Better Newspaper Contests to recognize and reward Iowa newspaper enterprises for content of a local nature, that content which is unique to the communities the newspapers serve. However, the INA Contest Committee and its boards of directors also recognize that the contests must reflect an evolving industry, one which is outsourcing and collaborating on content more than ever before. To better reflect how newspaper enterprises operate today, changes have been made in the eligibility guidelines to allow entries by those not on the staff of the newspaper company, if certain criteria are met (defined under eligibility). It is the INA's hope that each newspaper will critically evaluate those entries not produced by its own staff to ensure all the criteria are met and that the integrity of the Better Newspaper Contests is maintained.

All entries should be submitted online unless otherwise noted.

See the Entry Guide for instructions on using the online entry tool. Payments can be made online using a credit card or by mailing a check to the Iowa Newspaper Foundation.

Categories that allow mailed hard-copy entries:

- Best Special Section (Editorial)
- Best Headline Writing
- Best Special Section (Advertising)
- Total Newspaper Design Entries in the Total Newspaper Design category must be submitted by hard copy

For mailed entries, entry tags must be produced and printed through the BetterNewspaperContest.com online system. Each entry should be placed in its own separate envelope, and then all entry envelopes should be gathered together in one box or package.

Send contest fee payments (if not paying online) and hard-copy entries to:
Iowa Newspaper Foundation
319 East 5th Street
Des Moines, Iowa 50309

Judging. Judging for the 2022 Better Newspaper Contests will be provided by members of the Oklahoma Press Association.

Awards. First-place plaques will be awarded in each class. Certificates will be awarded for second and third place. There will be no honorable mention awards. Judges will be instructed to award a first, second and third place winner in all contest classes for which at least six entries were submitted; if a contest has five or fewer entries, it will be at the judge's discretion whether to select a third place. Awards will be presented during the Awards Banquet at the Annual Convention February 3, 2022.

Entry Fees. There will be an entry fee of $6.25 for each contest entry.

The entry fee must be paid online when submitting entries or mailed to the INF with mailed contest entries.

CONTEST ENTRY PROCEDURES

Eligibility

Any INA Active (newspaper) member in good standing may enter the contests. Eligible publications must meet the definition of an active INA member as outlined in section 3.2 of INA by-laws, including but not limited to having a paid circulation of at least 50 percent of total circulation, publishing 50 times per year and having completed one year of publication with a Periodicals mailing permit.

Entries not produced by a member(s) of the newspaper staff must meet all of the following criteria to be eligible:

- The newspaper paid to have the content created;
- The content was created as the result of a contract directly between the newspaper and the freelancer (no third party was involved in the transaction);
- The newspaper had substantial editorial and content control (syndicated or wire service material is not eligible for submission).

Entry Classes

There will be two daily entry classes and three weekly entry classes. Weekly classes will be determined by dividing weekly newspapers in thirds based on newspaper participation of the previous year. The 2020 Statements of Ownership will be used as the determinant of each paper's circulation. A newspaper that combines or changes class will be judged in the class in which it published the majority of the year. The newspaper will be responsible for submitting documentation to INA staff.

Dailies and weeklies must compete in their respective divisions and class sizes.

Twin weeklies, semi-weeklies and tri-weeklies should be considered one newspaper for contest purposes. For these newspapers, the issue with the largest circulation published in the 2020 Statements of Ownership will determine the newspaper's circulation entry class.

See the box below for a breakdown of classes by circulation.

ENTRY CLASSES
DAILY division	WEEKLY division
CLASS I - Under 5,050	CLASS I - 840 and under
CLASS II - 5,051 and greater	CLASS II - 841 to 1,550
	CLASS III - 1,551 and above

Collaborative entries appearing in more than one paid or unpaid editorial publication must be entered in what would be the contest class of the larger (or largest) publication.

However, a non-collaborative photo or story produced by a staff member(s) of one newspaper may be entered in that newspaper's class, even if it is also published in another newspaper. Advertising-only publications are not to be included in the determination of contest class. Entries from auxiliary publications of an active member — shopper, total market coverage product, special sections labeled as part of the newspaper, niche publications — will be accepted if the auxiliary publication is distributed with the member newspaper on a full run or zoned basis.

Entry Submission

All entries should be submitted online at BetterNewspaperContest.com unless noted with  symbol. For entries that can be submitted by mail, entry labels must be created through the online entry site. It is important that you use the required entry tags as they contain specific codes that judges will use to enter their results online.

For mailed entries, each entry must be placed in a separate envelope, with entry tags attached to each entry AND to each envelope.

Entries may be submitted as full-page (PDF) tearsheets or whole issues. Where noted with  symbol, digital content may be entered as a URL or screenshot. See page 6 for additional details.

Digital Entry Submission

Content published on digital platforms is eligible for entry in select categories. The complete list of eligible categories is below and is indicated by a  symbol throughout the Call for Entries. For these categories, your entry submissions may have been published in printed form, digital form or a combination of the two. Categories without a  symbol must have been published in printed form. All print entries must be full page tearsheets.

When submitting entries that have been published on digital platforms, provide a URL or a screenshot of the content as it originally appeared.

E14. Best Use of Graphics

Submit up to six examples of information graphics and/or illustrations. Entries will be judged on design, with emphasis on usefulness to the reader.

Up to six examples submitted will constitute your newspaper's entry in this contest.

1 entry per newspaper | 1 - 6 samples

PHOTOGRAPHY CONTESTS

Photos must be submitted as a full-page PDF tearsheet or screenshot showing proof of publication. A jpeg of the photo also must be included in addition to the required full-page tearsheet. Editing should maintain the integrity of the photographic images' content and context. Do not manipulate images or add or alter sound in any way that can mislead viewers or misrepresent subjects.

The same photo may not be entered in more than one category P1-P5.

Daily newspapers may submit up to six entries for each of these contests. Weekly newspapers may submit up to four entries for each of these contests. Submit an entry fee for each entry.

P1. Best News Photo

A single image of a news event. Judges will consider news value, timeliness, story-telling impact, composition and overall quality.

P2. Best Breaking News Photo

A single image of a news event for which no advance planning was possible. Examples include, but are not limited to, fires, traffic accidents, police standoffs and some natural disasters. Unexpected occurrences at scheduled events and weather-related events that could have been anticipated (such as predicted snowstorms or floods) should be entered in Best News Photo. Judges will consider news value, timeliness, difficulty or danger in capturing the image, composition and overall quality. Entrants are encouraged to include brief written details about how the image was captured.

P3. Best Sports Photo

A single image of competitors during competition. Images of fans, cheerleaders and coaches, as well as athletes before and after competition, should be entered in Best Sports Feature Photo. Judges will consider news value, timeliness, story-telling impact, composition and overall quality.

P4. Best Sports Feature Photo

A single sports-related image taken outside of actual competition. Examples include reaction shots (celebration, dejection, etc.) as well as portraits of athletes and coaches. Judges will consider news value, story-telling impact, composition and overall quality.

P5. Best News Feature Photo

A single image not eligible for the News, Breaking News, Sports or Sports Feature categories. Examples include but are not limited to portraits or other posed images; "slice-of-life" scenes; humorous, tender or light-hearted moments at scheduled and unscheduled events; and landscapes. Judges will consider impact, composition and overall quality.

P6. Best Photo Story

Multiple images that tell one story about an event, person, scene or issue on any subject, including those covered in the other Photo Contest categories. The entry will consist of up to seven images. If the originally published or posted package consisted of more than seven images, only the images to be considered for judging should be submitted. Entrants are encouraged to include brief written details about their entry. Judges will consider news value, story-telling impact, composition and overall quality.

FOR CATEGORIES P1 THROUGH P6

Daily Newspapers: Up to 6 entries per newspaper

Weekly Newspapers: Up to 4 entries per newspaper

P7. Best Photographer

Individual photographers may submit a "portfolio" of 6-10 examples of their published photos from the contest year. Entries will be judged on technical ability and the breadth of work. Explanatory material is welcome but not required. One entry fee per photographer required. Photographers will be limited to one entry per photographer, regardless of the number of newspapers the individual shoots photos for. Portfolio submissions must be from the same newspaper.

FRANK NYE NEWSWRITING CONTESTS

W1. Best News Story

Judges will consider community-wide importance of the story and quality of writing. No consideration will be given to headlines, photos or artwork. Entry may be a single story, single story with sidebars or a series of articles marked "First of a series, Second of a series," etc., when published.

W2. Best Breaking News Story

A Breaking News Story is defined as one in which no advance planning is possible (examples: natural disasters, fires, accidents, etc.). Judges will consider community-wide importance of the story, timeliness and quality of writing. No consideration will be given to photos or artwork. Breaking News reporting emphasizes entries that, as quickly as possible, capture events accurately as they occur, and, as time passes, illuminate, provide context, and expand upon the initial coverage. Judges will take into consideration not only the quality of the work but the amount of time writer(s) had to prepare it before publication. Newspapers are encouraged to use the comments section of the entry website to briefly detail the timing of the event and publication of the article(s) being entered.

W3. Best News Feature Story

Entries will be judged on the basis of subject and quality of writing. No consideration will be given to photos or artwork. Entry may be a single story, single story with sidebars or a series of articles marked "First of a series, Second of a series," etc., when published.

W4. Best Personality Feature Story

A Personality Feature Story is defined as one in which the writer explores the characteristics of a person and presents his/her unique story. Entries will be judged on the basis of subject and quality of writing. No consideration will be given to photos or artwork. Entry may be a single story, single story with sidebars or a series of articles marked "First of a series, Second of a series," etc., when published.

W5. Best Sports Story

Entries will be judged on the basis of subject and quality of writing. Game coverage or sports-related news coverage that does not include features may be entered. No consideration will be given to photos or artwork. Entry may be a single story, single story with sidebars or a series of articles marked "First of a series, Second of a series," etc., when published.

W6. Best Sports Feature Story

Entries will be judged on the basis of subject and quality of writing. No consideration will be given to photos or artwork. Entry may be a single story, single story with sidebars or a series of articles marked "First of a series, Second of a series," etc., when published.

W7. Best Series

Entries must be clearly marked as a series when published. Entries will be judged on topic, with emphasis on local content or impact, depth of reporting, quality of writing, graphics, photography and page design.

FOR CATEGORIES W1 THROUGH W7

Daily Newspapers: Up to 6 entries per newspaper
Weekly Newspapers: Up to 4 entries per newspaper

W8. Excellence In Editorial Writing

Submit three editorials written by the same writer or writers. Entries to be judged on logic, persuasiveness, originality and manner of presentation with emphasis on local issues. Three editorials constitute one full entry.

The same entry may not be submitted in both (W8) Excellence in Editorial Writing and (W9) Master Columnist.

W9. Master Columnist

Submit three columns written by the same writer. Journalists will be limited to one entry per person in this category. Three columns constitute one full entry. Blog entries are allowed.

The same entry may not be submitted in both (W8) Excellence in Editorial Writing and (W9) Master Columnist.

W10. Best Sports Columnist

Submit three columns written by the same columnist. Entries are limited to columns written by sports writers.

Journalists will be limited to one entry per person in this category. Three columns constitute one full entry.

FOR CATEGORIES W8 THROUGH W10

Daily Newspapers: 6 entries per newspaper | 3 samples per entry
Weekly Newspapers: 4 entries per newspaper | 3 samples per entry

W11. Best Continuing Coverage

Entries must be for continuing coverage of an event of importance to the community that is not part of a previously planned series. Papers are allowed one entry of 3-5 items, which may include stories, editorials, columns, graphics and multimedia. Papers are encouraged to attach a note outlining how the issue is important to the community and how coverage had an effect. Entries will be judged on the depth of coverage and community-wide importance. No COVID-19 coverage accepted.

1 entry per newspaper | 3-5 samples

W12. Best COVID-19 Coverage

COVID-19 will be one of the top stories of the year. Every newspaper covered the disease and its effect on their community. This one-year special category looks to highlight that coverage in Iowa newspapers. Papers are allowed one entry of 3-5 items, which may include stories, editorials, columns, graphics and multimedia. Papers are encouraged to attach a note outlining how their newspaper covered the COVID-19 effect on their community and special circumstances such as reduced staff that affected coverage. Entries will be judged on the depth of coverage and communitywide importance.

1 entry per newspaper | 3-5 samples

DIGITAL CONTESTS

I1. Best Newspaper Website

The Best Newspaper Website contest is open to any member newspaper with an active website. Your website will be randomly visited by our judges on multiple occasions.

The contest will be judged on the following criteria:

- Content - Quality of news and editorial matter
- Navigation - Ease of finding and retrieving information from the website
- Visual/Design - Layout, use of graphics, photographs, animation, color and other visuals
- Advertising - Innovative strategies and/or evidence of revenue generation
- Community - Demonstration that the website fulfills a “community gatekeeper” role

Entries should be submitted as a URL.

1 entry per newspaper

I2. Best Video

Recognizes a video to tell a story and serve a community. Emphasis will be placed on visitor experience, quality of the story and use of the technology. It may be part of a larger project or stand on its own. The entry should include a description of the video and any information on the print story that it accompanied, if there was one. Newspapers have the option of crediting the newspaper staff or individual staff member(s).

Entries should be submitted as a URL.

I3. Best Slideshow

Recognizes an audio slideshow or narrated online photo gallery to tell a story. Emphasis will be placed on quality of the photos and visitor experience as well as on creative use of technology. It may be part of a larger project or stand on its own. The entry should include a description of the slideshow and any information on the print story that it accompanied, if there was one. Newspapers have the option of crediting the newspaper staff or individual staff member(s).

Entries should be submitted as a URL.

FOR CATEGORIES I2 AND I3

Daily Newspapers: Up to 6 entries per newspaper
Weekly Newspapers: Up to 4 entries per newspaper

I4. Bill Monroe Best Special Digital Project

Recognizes digital storytelling in a diversity of platforms. The project should be conceived, planned, and executed as a digital product where tools such as video, still images, data visualization, and timelines, among others, are used in innovative ways. The judges will also consider the user experience on desk and mobile platforms. One winner will be selected. Bill Monroe, the INA's executive director for 29 years and a champion for the newspaper industry, was an “early adopter” for technology positioning newspapers for long-term success.

1 entry per newspaper

I5. Best Use of Social Media

This contest recognizes the most effective use of social media by a news organization overall, or a for a specific news event. Judges will consider your use of social media to increase readership, drive revenue or engage with your community. They will look for new and novel uses of social media, better than expected response rates or even praise from readers received via social media. The judges also want to know if you have grown your followers or likes dramatically – and how. Judges will visit your social media pages/feeds on multiple occasions.

Entries should be submitted as a URL. Include links to all of your organization's social media offerings that you would like judges to consider (Facebook page, Twitter feed, LinkedIn profile, etc.).

1 entry per newspaper

I6. Best Podcast

This contest recognizes an outstanding digital presentation. Each paper is allowed one entry consisting of no more than three podcast episode.

Emphasis will be placed on the listener experience and relevance to the community. The podcast may be part of a larger series or stand on its own. Entries may be on the entrant's website or on a hosted channel, but must be recorded, edited and produced by the newspaper's staff. Entrants are encouraged to include a description of the podcast's mission.

Entries should be submitted as a URL.

1 entry per newspaper

MARKETING CONTEST

M1. Best Newspaper Marketing

This contest recognizes the newspaper's initiatives to promote the newspaper and its various products. Entries may include materials to promote digital, readership, advertising, circulation, etc. Submit up to three entries per newspaper; each promotion or campaign constitutes an entry.

Up to 3 entries per newspaper

ADVERTISING CONTESTS

Entries must have been published in a paid circulation newspaper. This does not include stand-alone shoppers. General advertising run as part of a national schedule will not be judged. STATEMENT OF INTENT

It is the intent of the INA's Better Newspaper Contests to recognize and reward Iowa newspaper enterprises for content of a local nature, that content which is unique to the communities the newspapers serve. However, the INA Contest Committee and its boards of directors also recognize that the contests must reflect an evolving industry, one which is outsourcing and collaborating on content more than ever before. To better reflect how newspaper enterprises operate today, changes have been made in the eligibility guidelines to allow entries by those not on the staff of the newspaper company, if certain criteria are met (defined under eligibility). It is the INA's hope that each newspaper will critically evaluate those entries not produced by its own staff to ensure all the criteria are met and that the integrity of the Better Newspaper Contests is maintained.

A10. Best Web Advertisement

Recognizes visual appeal and creativity in design and content of a single static or animated ad appearing online at the newspaper's website.

Up to 3 entries per newspaper

A11. Ad Designer

Individual graphic designers may submit a "portfolio" of 6-10 examples of their published ad design work. Entries will be judged on overall design, typography and effectiveness. Explanatory material is welcome but not required. One entry fee per designer required. Designers will be limited to one entry per designer, regardless of the number of newspapers the individual designs for. Portfolio submissions are to be from one newspaper.

Unlimited entries per newspaper

Best of Class Advertising

All newspapers that enter advertising contests A1 through A10 will automatically be considered for these awards. Judges will choose the Best of Class winners from the first place ads in each class. No entry fee is required.

SPECIALITY REPORTING CONTESTS

R1. Harrison “Skip” Weber Investigative Reporting Awards

For each entry, newspapers shall submit tearsheet(s) with story or related stories. Entry may include a series. Investigative stories are defined as those which demand (a) research into documents and public records; (b) multiple interviews, which may include background sources never mentioned in the story; (c) documentation of time and depth of research on story; (d) planning for the articles. Judges will take into consideration such points as community-wide interest; effect of the story on the community; staff time spent on the story; depth of research; commitment of the newspaper to the project and risks involved in publishing the information. Entrants are asked to submit an explanation responding to points (a) through (d) and closing with a statement explaining the necessity of the entry and its impact on the community. The explanation is to be no more than two pages, double-spaced. Judges will award one winner in each circulation class.

R2. Genevieve Mauck Stoufer Outstanding Young Iowa Journalists Awards

To qualify for consideration, the nominee must be under 30 years of age as of December 31, 2019, and have worked at least one year for his or her current employer. A statement attesting to the nominee’s qualifications is to be submitted by his or her editor or publisher and must be accompanied by six examples of the nominee’s work within the past two years and a statement of not less than 150 words written by the nominee telling of his or her journalistic goals. This contest includes the work of all journalists, including but not limited to, reporters, photographers, graphic designers, production and advertising professionals. Judges shall name three winners for the Young Iowa Journalists Award. One winner must be from a daily and one winner must be from a weekly.

R3. Ken Fusion Best Writing Award

This award recognizes the best single piece of writing across all circulation classes and categories that published during the contest year. That includes features, news, sports, opinion, etc. The winning entry should draw readers in with compelling prose and keep them engaged until the end. Judges will look at the writing quality and the effectiveness of the writer in telling the story, regardless of its length. All entrants are limited to one submission. In the case of a series, the entrant must choose one part to submit. Judges shall award one winner and two finalists.

Jay P. Wagner Prize for Young Journalists

The Jay P. Wagner Prize for Young Journalists was created to honor the memory of Wagner, a lifelong Iowa newspaper reporter and editor whose passions included encouraging young reporters and promoting great community journalism. The contest is open to any reporter, columnist, editorial writer or blogger working on a newspaper in Iowa who is 30 years old or younger as of Dec. 31, 2020. There is no entry fee for this award.

Additional details on this award can be found in the inserted flyer or at INAnews.com.

Appeals

Any contest appeals of rules violations relating to contest entry procedures must be submitted in writing to the INF board within 30 days after the INA Annual Convention to be reviewed and resolved by the INF executive committee, and resulting communications will be handled by the INF board president or another member of the INF executive committee.
