Klobuchar, Grassley issue statements on Judiciary Committee's passage of antitrust legislation

American Innovation and Choice Online Act now advances to full Senate

U.S. Senators Amy Klobuchar (D-Minnesota), chairwoman of the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Competition Policy, Antitrust, and Consumer Rights, and Chuck Grassley (R-Iowa), ranking member of the Senate Judiciary Committee, issued the statements below following the Senate Judiciary Committee's passage of the American Innovation and Choice Online Act by a vote of 16-6. Klobuchar and Grassley introduced this legislation in October to restore competition online by stopping dominant digital platforms from unfairly preferencing their own products and services.

"American prosperity was built on a foundation of open markets and fair competition, but right now our country faces a monopoly problem, and American consumers, workers, and businesses are paying the price," said Klobuchar. "As dominant digital platforms — some of the biggest companies our world has ever seen — increasingly give preference to their own products and services, we must put policies in place to ensure small businesses and entrepreneurs still have the opportunity to succeed in the digital marketplace. This bill will do just that, while also providing consumers with the benefit of greater choice online. I'm proud to lead this much-needed legislation alongside Senator Grassley, Chair Durbin and a bipartisan group of our colleagues. Now that it has passed the Judiciary Committee, we are one step closer to it passing the Senate and being signed into law."

"Everyone acknowledges the problems posed by dominant online platforms. Our legislation sets out to level the playing field for small businesses and entrepreneurs who need to operate on these platforms, as well as benefit the consumers that use them. While solutions like these are long overdue, today's committee approval is a huge step forward for consumers and competition in America. I look forward to continued collaboration with Senator Klobuchar and others to get this bill passed in the full Senate," said Grassley.

This legislation is cosponsored by Senators Dick Durbin (D-Illinois), Lindsey Graham (R-South Carolina), Richard Blumenthal (D-Connecticut), John Kennedy (R-Louisiana), Cory Booker (D-New Jersey), Cynthia Lummis (R-Wyoming), Mazie Hirono (D-Hawaii), Mark Warner (D-Virginia), Josh Hawley (R-Missouri), Steve Daines (R-Montana) and Sheldon Whitehouse (D-Rhode Island) and endorsed by companies including Roku, DuckDuckGo, Yelp, Spotify and Match Group. Earlier this week, more than 35 small and medium tech companies sent a letter to the Senate Judiciary Committee urging it to advance the legislation.

INA to provide photos from State Wrestling Tournament

The Iowa High School Athletic Association and the Iowa Newspaper Association are again working together to facilitate the INA Photography Pool service for Iowa newspapers during the 2022 State Wrestling Championships.

The IHSAA will be announcing changes and possible restrictions later this week for its annual state wrestling tournaments. The tournaments are currently scheduled for February 17-19 at Wells Fargo Arena in Des Moines. The Iowa Newspaper Association is in discussions with the IHSAA regarding updated procedures for credentialed media, including likely workspace and capacity limitations at the venue. Both the INA and IHSAA encourage newspapers to utilize the INA Photo Pool and to consider staffing requirements before credential registration opens on February 13, 2022. IHSAA plans to post media procedures in the days following its tournament release. Visit the IHSAA Media page for more information: www.iahsaa.org/resources/media. The IHSAA will have all state-qualifying wrestlers listed on its website at <http://www.iahsaa.org/> by Sunday, Feb. 13.

Photos order details will be included in next week's issue of the Bulletin. If you have any questions, please contact ina@inanews.com.

Register Now for The Spring 2022 Virtual Jump-Start Internship and Networking Fair

We invite you to our VIRTUAL internship fair on Tuesday, Feb. 22, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The goal of this fair is to help employers and students connect for internship opportunities in the fields of journalism, advertising and public relations.

We will be using a drop-in format for student visits and working in collaboration with Liberal Arts and Sciences Career Services.

The fair will take place through the Iowa State CyHire system. Employers will provide their own virtual meeting links and students will connect through CyHire to the company's own virtual meeting room(s) using their preferred platform (Teams, Webex, Zoom, etc).

Employer registration has opened through CyHire. Please follow these steps to register:

If you have registered for the fair in past semesters: Log in to your CyHire account. On your CyHire homepage, find the "Attend Events" section and scroll to click on the "Jump-Start Internship and Networking Fair sponsored by Greenlee School of Journalism and Communication – Feb. 22" and complete the registration form.

If you are a new attendee: First register with Iowa State's CyHire System by following the below steps.

- Go to CyHire
- Click on "Sign Up and Post Job"
- Complete the form and click "Submit"
- Once we approve your registration, you will receive a system e-mail with your login information

Once you are registered in CyHire, you can follow the above instructions to register for the Jump-Start Internship and Networking Fair.

Please note, registration will close on 5 p.m. Feb. 18. However, The earlier you get your registration in, the more exposure you get to students.

REASONS WHY EMPLOYERS SHOULD ATTEND:

1. Meet students who have the skills you're looking for. Connect with dozens of Iowa State students majoring in advertising, journalism and mass communication, public relations, communications and other related fields. The Jump-Start Fair is open to all Iowa State students. Hear for yourself how their class work, involvement in clubs and student media and previous work experiences have prepared them for internships or full-time positions at your company or organization. You'll walk away with handfuls of resumé's from promising candidates.
2. Greenlee students value internships. All Greenlee majors are required to complete a 400-hour internship as part of their 499A capstone course requirement. They are also strongly encouraged to complete more than one internship before they graduate, so they're eager to learn about and are actively searching for potential opportunities.
3. Did I mention it's FREE? All it costs you is your time and commitment to participate once you are registered. While there is no fee for participation, we appreciate a strong commitment when you register. Registrants will receive a pre-fair instructional email one week prior to the event.

Questions about the fair? Please call me at (515) 294-9957 or email julip@iastate.edu.

May this year be great for you, and I hope to see your registration soon.

The event will be held Tuesday, February 22.

Registration opens January 3.

A new spin on convention and awards banquet!

Based on low trends in registration, hesitation from speakers as well as vendors and concern for everyone's safety—we have chosen to rethink our traditional convention. Not doing so would have been financially irresponsible.

Convention is about networking, celebrating, and learning. With that in mind, we are planning to move the Awards Banquet to April 28, 2022 at the Downtown Des Moines Marriott. In addition to the banquet, we'll host a workshop with sessions this summer. Be on the lookout for additional sessions that will be made available via the Online Media Campus that is free to all INA members.

Full refunds will be issued to everyone who has already registered for the event. When registration opens for the April Banquet, it will be communicated in the Bulletin and through email. This is not a decision that was taken lightly, and we understand that there will be many questions. Your patience while working through the details is greatly appreciated.

We can't wait to see you in April!
